

GLOBAL REPORT ON HUMAN SETTLEMENTS 2009

P L A N N I N G
Sustainable Cities

Recent Innovative Planning Approaches Identified in the Global Report 2009

- ⊙ Strategic spatial planning
- ⊙ Spatial planning to integrate public sector functions
- ⊙ New land regularization and management approaches
- ⊙ Participatory processes and partnerships
- ⊙ Master planning emphasizing participation and social justice
- ⊙ Planning for sustainability

Specific Policy Directions: Bridging the Green and Brown Agendas

- ⊙ Designing compact cities
- ⊙ Integrating green standards
- ⊙ Sustainable transport strategies
- ⊙ Renewable energy sources for cities
- ⊙ Carbon-neutral cities
- ⊙ Small-scale, distributed power and water systems
- ⊙ Eco-efficient waste management
- ⊙ Developing “cities without slums”
(focusing on water and sanitation needs)

ISOCARP 2009 – policies and spatial planning for Low Carbon Cities

- ◎ Leadership, awareness and lifestyle change
- ◎ At all levels: from national to individual city projects
- ◎ Context of the wider region / rural hinterland
- ◎ Integrate land use, transport, energy and waste planning
- ◎ Embrace all other aspects of the green and blue environment
- ◎ Aim to secure genuine GHG savings
- ◎ Energy Planning at the local level
- ◎ Upgrade the efficiency of the existing buildings
- ◎ Adaptation / DRR planning

Continued... Resilience and Sustainability

GLOBAL REPORT ON HUMAN SETTLEMENTS 2009

P L A N N I N G
Sustainable Cities